NUMBER 2

The President's Report

To the Board of Trustees:

Herewith is submitted a brief report of Bridgewater College for the session of 1955-56, which ended June 30, 1956. The reports of the treasurer of the College and the Director of the Development Program are included in this bulletin. The seventy-sixth year of the college was marked by an all-time high in gifts, an eight per cent increase in enrollment, and by a serious purpose on the part of both students and teachers.

The Enrollment

The enrollment for 1955-56 showed an increase of 8% over that of the previous year. There were 478 full-time students and 17 specials in the regular session, and 79 in the summer term, making a grand total of 574. A strong recruiting program was carried on throughout the year, a high school and parents' day observed on the campus, and home and school visitation was conducted by the Admissions Counselor and others of the staff.

The following tabulation shows the distribution of students by districts of the Church of the Brethren in the Southeastern Region:

Florida, Georgia, and Puerto Rico	5
Mardela	11
Eastern Maryland	40
Middle Maryland	6
Western Maryland	3
North and South Carolina	5
Tennessee and Alabama	2
Eastern Virginia	43
First Virginia	47
Northern Virginia	100
Second Virginia	140
Southern Virginia	41
First West Virginia	16
Second West Virginia	2
Outside Southeastern Region	31
Foreign countries	3

Trustee and Faculty Changes

Two members of the faculty retired at the end of the session after having served the college long and well—Marshall R. Wolfe, Professor of Bible, since 1937, and Gustav H. Enss, Professor of German and Philosophy since 1949. Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe continue to live in their home on Broad Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Enss have chosen Lake Wales, Florida, as their home. Other changes in the faculty were the resignations of Ruth E. Tandy, Assistant Professor of Physical Education, since 1950;

Katharine Currie, Assistant Professor of Voice, after one year; Galen Fahnestock, instructor in commerce, after three years, Kathryne Widdowson, Assistant dean of students after two years, and Margery Fike, instructor in Home Economics, after one year. C. Orman Spivey was secured as teacher in voice, Berchie Hodum in home economics, Frances Z. May, in commerce, and Edna W. Shively as assistant dean of students. L. S. Shively came into the faculty as interim professor of mathematics, M. Ellsworth Kyger, as Assistant Professor of Spanish, William E. Barnett as Assistant Professor of Sociology, and Calvin C. Berlin as Assistant Professor of History.

There were also a number of changes in the Trustee Board. Orval S. Garber of Roanoke was elected to succeed R. D. Nininger from the First District of Virginia, Holt Griffith from the North and South Carolina District to succeed Robert A. Reed, and Fred Fifer from the Mardela District to succeed J. M. Bennett. William E. Wine who had served ably on the Board since 1950 died in November. Mr. Wine, an alumnus, contributed much to the college in time and money during his lifetime, and will long be remembered by all of those who knew him.

Religious Activities

Religious Emphasis Week was held during the fourth week of January. Robert E. Richards of California, the guest minister, brought inspiring messages to both students and faculty at the regular chapel hour and again during the evening when his talks were presented mainly to students. The Youth Round Table for the Southeastern Region held in April was well attended with approximately 900 youth present. Alvin Brightbill and Dan West were the guest leaders in this conference. The religious organizations which include the Student Christian Association, the Clericus, and the CBYF were unusually active during the past year. Many deputation groups visited the churches of the region and were well received. The Sunday school hour sponsored by the SCA was one of the outstanding features of the religious activities. The Spiritual Life Institute held in February brought many of the ministers and leaders of the Region to the campus. Halford E. Luccock, Paul M. Robinson, and Paul W. Petcher were the guest speakers and each of them brought messages of inspiration and worth.

The summer conferences on the campus began on June 25 with the Virginia Conference Methodist Women's Society Retreat. Following this was the Women's Work Church of the Brethren Retreat, and the Christian Ashram. The Children's Workers Conference of the Church of the Brethren and the Virginia Christian Endeavor Union Assembly brought the conferences to a close on August 10. These meetings always bring outstanding religious leaders to our college and their presence is appreciated.

Commencement

The Seventy-sixth Commencement was held on June 4 with Massey M. Heltzel, Class of 1936, delivering the address. Baccalaureate degrees were conferred upon sixty students, and nine candidates for degrees in August were presented. Three honorary degrees were conferred upon Massey M. Heltzel '36, Roy M. Hoover, '15, and Robert M. McKinney, '24. The Alumni Directors held their annual business meeting following a twelve o'clock luncheon. The annual business meeting of the Alumni Association followed at four o'clock at which time B. O. Miller '23 was elected president of the Association for the year of 1956-57. The Alumni Award for 1956 was made to Walter S. Flory '28 at the time of the banquet. Rufus B. King delivered the banquet address.

Other Items

The resignation of Rufus B. King as Director of the Development Program and Executive Secretary of the Alumni Association after nine years of outstanding work with the college, created an important opening to be filled on the staff. Fortunately, this vacancy has been filled by the appointment of Jacob F. Replogle '37.

A four-apartment brick building for faculty members was constructed and partially occupied during the year. This building has been named The Virginia Garber Cole Strickler Apartments in memory of Mrs. Strickler whose gift to the college through her will made possible this much needed building.

Founders Day held on March 28 was a service honoring Virginia Garber Cole Strickler. President Emeritus Paul H. Bowman gave the address in recognition of Mrs. Strickler as a friend and benefactor of the college. A portrait presented to the college by the Alumni Association was unveiled at this service.

The history of "Brethren Education in the Southeast" by Paul H. Bowman was released from the publisher in May of this year. This is the third history of the college to be written, coming at twenty-five year intervals. The first volume was published in 1905 with John W. Wayland as editor; the second in 1930 with "A Staff of Alumni" as editors, and the third with Paul H. Bowman, as editor.

A survey of the finances and business administration of the college was made by W. Robert Bokelman, Specialist for College Business Management of the U. S. Office of Education, on January 27 and 29. The presence of Mr. Bokelman on the campus, and his detailed report along with many helpful suggestions, mean much to both the present and the future planning for the college.

Early in the fall the question of the gymnasium was again reviewed, and it was decided that an inspection of the fifty year old building should again be made as to its safety for large balcony crowds who attend the basketball games. This inspection was made in October by a civil engineer who reported that the building was unsafe for large crowds. This report made it necessary to take the home basketball games to nearby centers. The authorization of the Board in its June meeting to begin construction of the gymnasium was carried out, and in July excavation was begun with the hope that the foundation work would be completed before winter comes.

Conclusion

Three main problems will confront the college in the immediate years ahead: first, additional buildings and equipment which the increasing enrollment will require; second, the securing and maintenance of a well-qualified teaching staff in light of the shortage of college teachers and our inadequate salaries; and third, the strengthening of our financial position which is largely the underlying solution for the necessary buildings and teaching staff. We must implement our development program in every possible way through a second visitation of the churches, gifts from alumni and friends, donations from corporations, and through wills and estate gifts. While we should work for large gifts in so far as possible, yet it appears that our financial strength may lie primarily in a large number of small gifts from alumni and friends who love the college and are willing to share annually to help Bridgewater realize her goals. With our growing constituency, loyal alumni, and increasing interest on part of the churches of the region, I believe the financial outlook for the college is reasonably bright.

Bridgewater College must keep foremost her primary purpose—to provide a higher education for worthy youth under Christian influences. We should strive to maintain a well-qualified and genuinely Christian faculty, be increasingly selective with respect to the admission of students, and maintain a Christian atmosphere on the campus. We must continue to turn out graduates who are well prepared scholastically, strong in character, deeply spiritual, and committed to service. So long as Bridgewater College remains true to her high purpose, her place in Christian higher education will be assured.

Respectfully submitted,
Warren D. Bowman
President
